Guardian - Richard Wollheim. Allen Lane, London, 1973. 349 pp., illus. $6.00. Reviewed by Virgil C. Aldrich. It is hard not to love a book that says in its preface: “Philosophy has virtually nothing to offer those who would rifle it. Like paint, it requires that we find ourselves in it before it gives us anything.” The pity is that one who is not conversant with works of art will not understand the ...
